

Taichung City Government partners with Swiss hospitality institution Glion

07 September 2019

Taichung City Government's Education Bureau and Glion Institute of Higher Education, a leading Swiss hospitality management institution, have signed a cooperation agreement to formalize their relationship and educational collaboration providing Taichung local high school students with study abroad options in the promising field of international hospitality management.

Students who fulfil the admission criteria are eligible for scholarships to Glion's Bachelor in International Hospitality Business and summer programs at Glion campuses in Switzerland and the United Kingdom. For more information, go to <https://www.glion.edu/>

Founded in 1962, Glion Institute of Higher Education is a private Swiss institution offering bachelor's and master's degrees in hospitality, luxury and finance to students from over 90 nationalities across three campuses in Switzerland and London, UK.

Accredited by the New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE), Glion is ranked number four of the world's top institutions for hospitality and leisure management by QS World University Rankings by Subject 2019. Glion is part of Sommet Education, an education group in hospitality management and culinary arts owned by Eurazeo, one of the leading listed investment companies in Europe.

Taichung City is located in central Taiwan and plays an essential role in both Taiwan's economic development and transportation systems. It is the hub for the major cities and counties in the central Taiwan region. Following the merger of Taichung city and county, Greater Taichung has now become the second-largest among Taiwan's six special municipalities with a population of over 2,800,000 people.
